‘So I exhort the elders among you, as a fellow elder and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, as well as a partaker in the glory that is going to be revealed; shepherd the flock of God that is among you, exercising oversight, not under compulsion, but willingly, as God would have you, not for shameful gain, but eagerly, not domineering over those in your charge, but being examples to the flock. And when the chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the unfading crown of glory. Likewise, you who are younger, be subject to the elders. Clothe yourselves, all of you, with humility towards one another, for ‘God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble’.

Not able to access the website a reminder of Who we are

Who are we?

We are a Christian church, which has been meeting in the building since May 1890.

We're also one of the congregations of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, which just describes the way our church is run - we simply do not do hierarchy - our leadership team, including our minister, is chosen by us.

Clontarf & Scots Presbyterian Church is one of the 545 congregations that make up the Presbyterian Church in Ireland and is part of the Dublin and Munster Presbytery one of the 19 Presbyteries throughout Ireland, north and south.

The Presbyterian form of Christian faith is best described as 'Reformed' with its strong emphasis on the Sovereignty of God, the Kingship of Christ and the authority of the Bible and had its origins in Scottish migrations to Ulster in the early seventeenth century. The word 'Presbyterian' describes the form of the Church government which emphasises the individual and corporate responsibility of members. Ministers and members share in the organising and running of every aspect of the Church's work.
